

Crete's Culinary Sanctuaries

Eco-agritourism programs

Preserving pockets of paradise

Discover the secrets of Crete's wild nature, culture and cuisine. CCS is an all-local network of:

- Chefs
- Sustainable organic farmers
- Eco-lodge owners
- Traditional Artisans

We work with local communities and visitors on action programs to help preserve Crete's natural beauty and cultural heritage...for all of us to enjoy.

People make a place special. As guests in a foreign land, does our presence benefit local people and their environment? Or are we contributing to the destruction of our world's sanctuaries?

What's going on in the real world of Crete?

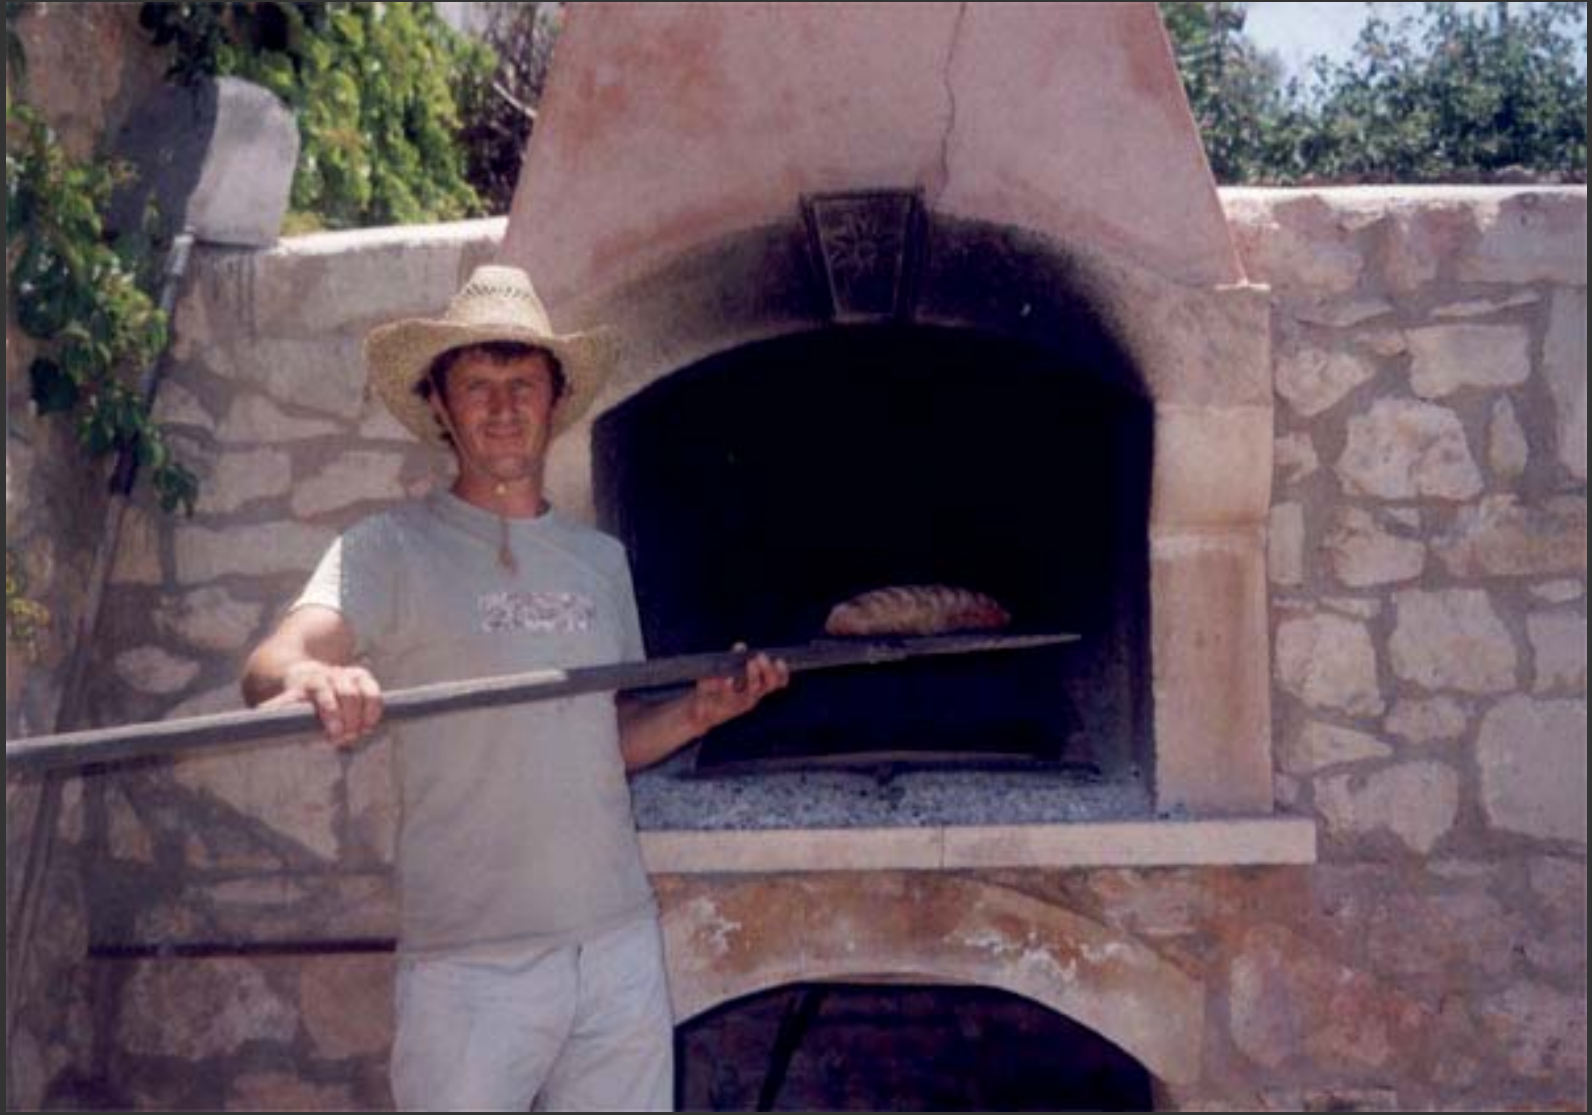

Living Responsible Travel

- CCS links tourism with agriculture
- Agriculture is an integral part of Cretan life
- Crete's natural beauty and resources are at risk
- By rekindling interest in Crete's culture, residents and visitors equally benefit from this experience of a lifetime
- Trips are limited to 8 people so visitors can experience a true taste of Crete and embrace this foreign land for what it is: A fascinating world that is vastly different from home.
